FOREWORD

"ALL THE WORLD'S A STAGE," SAYS SHAKESPEARE. IF SUCH
BE TRUE, THEN OUR YEARS AT
LA GRANGE COLLEGE MAY BE CALLED AN EPISODE IN A GREAT DRAMA. MAY IT BE THAT THE EPISODES WHICH
FOLLOW WILL BE MORE BEAU-TIFUL AND NOBLER CREATIONS
OF ART BECAUSE WE HAVE BEEN A PART OF THIS ONE.

ALMA MATER

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater;
Guardian of our days;
For thy spirit, never failing
We would sing thy praise.
High aloft we hold thy banner,
Ever loyal, true;
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Hail to thee, LaGrange.

In thy mighty grove of learning,
Wisdom's path we've sought;
High upon thy lofty hilltop
Visions have been wrought.
From our hearts we sing the chorus,
Let the sound prolong!
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Hail to thee, LaGrange.

SPRING PASSIONAL

Not long, before these dun, disconsolate hills
Will flame again to April's tender blushes;
The little dreary brooks will catch
The silver torrent of her tears,
And sing anew between their greening rushes.
Even now, the withered, dry ghost-grass,
Last vestige of the old year's slow reliction,
Bears the incredible gold of a jonquil's opening star,
Enfolds a bluebell's breathless benediction.

So rebegins the old processional,
Immemorial and proud, the warm skies under;
When fields and hedges, billowing with bloom,
Are caught into a wide, soft, fragrant wonder.
How soon, oh birds, will you begin your songs,
Above the dragon-flies and brown bees' humming?
Soon April's feet must find the meadow-paths—
I cannot wait, I cannot wait her coming!

Carrie Fall Benson,
in EVERY YEAR AN APRIL

OUT OF MY DREAMING

Out of the muddy waters,
 the lily's waxy white,
Out of the dreary darkness,
 the dawning's hopeful light,
Out of a furrowed hillside,
 the wheat field's beauty springs;
Out of a drab cocoon,
 a pair of gorgeous wings.
Out of an hour of sadness,
 a lovely pleading song,
Out of a silent hardship,
 a heart courageous, strong.
Out of the future's dimness,
 one friend forever true;
Out of the past of memories,
 out of my dreaming—you.

—MARGARET BARRETT.

The DUNSON MILLS
LAGRANGE, GEORGIA

MANY YEARS AGO LaGrange was named by one of her first citizens "The City of Elms and Roses"; since that time she has also become the City of Cotton Mills; and her residents may justly feel a pride in either name.

THE DUNSON MILLS lies on the eastern edge of the city, between the Atlanta and West Point Railroad and the Atlanta Highway, Route 14. Its buildings and the grounds are among the most attractive in the South today. The main mill building and offices are surrounded by a wide expanse of velvety lawns, green the year round, and appropriately planted with flowering and evergreen shrubs. The mill building is of red brick with white trim, and has a base planting of shrubbery. The tenement village has some three hundred houses of three and four-room types, at all times kept freshly painted white, with green trim. Every home is provided with electric lights and running water and has ample room surrounding it for flower and vegetable gardens, chickens, and a cow if desired. The City of LaGrange rents from the Company its splendid two-story brick school building and operates there a grammar school. The Company operates at its own expense a well-equipped kindergarten for the small children.

A full-time graduate nurse is regularly employed by the Company for the welfare of its employees and their families, and group life insurance at a very low rate is provided for all who wish it.

The Company a few years ago built two modern brick churches, one of Old English and one of Colonial design, and besides furnishing light, heat and janitor service for the congregations using them, also contributes substantially to the support of their resident pastors.
